Cheerleaders And Pep Club Display Enthusiasm And Spirit

Members of the M.H.S. Pep Club Executive Committee boosted school spirit by planning pep assemblies, selling buttons and ribbons, and making signs. President Mindy Cockley had the assistance of Sue Bottomley, vice-president; secretary, Linda Browarsky; and treasurer Judy Keeler. Mr. Morrison served as this year's advisor.

Varsity cheerleaders this year were headed by captain Kim Davis. Both reserve and varsity squads faithfully supported the Tyger teams.

1) This year's varsity cheerleaders are Vickie Hunt, Lori Beeman, and Kim Davis. STANDING are Joan Jobs, Eileen Murphy, Sallie Dill, Lynn Hull, and MaryAnn Ott. 2) Unquenchable spirit is shown by initiation victim, Linda Lucas. 3) Captain Kim Davis leads the squad in a cheer. 4) With hopes of a victory in the Sectional Tournament, the cheerleaders lead us on. 5) With the agony of defeat, Eileen Murphy shows her emotions. 6) Football coach, Jim Lutz, and his co-captains, Greg Warndorf and Chuck Mason, help promote spirit at the assemblies. 7) An embarrassing sight is Jackie Cochran during the annual cheerleading initiation. 8) Pep Club advisor, Mr. Morrison, also directed many assemblies. 9) The highlight of the Pep Club initiation was the kiddie car race, as demonstrated by Jill Jefferies.

1) Suzi Hall expresses emotion before the near capacity crowd in room 129. 2) Students look at the many fine art objects exhibited in the cafeteria. 3) Choir director Miss Shaffer wears a proud smile after the performance. 4) Spectrum advisor Mr. Cole receives a gift of gratitude from Mike Gabor, a staff member.

Senior High Key Club Sponsors Annual Fine Arts Festival

Annually the Mansfield Senior High Key Club sponsors the Fine Arts Festival. This event is held to allow those people involved in the Fine Arts Department to display their individual talents. The groups participating this year were the Art Department under the leadership of Miss Bolus and Mr. Beveridge, the Drama Department under Mrs. Thomas, the Instrumental Music Department under Mr. Leyerle and Mr. Hall, and the Vocal Music Department under Miss Shaffer.

1) Members of the Stage Band wait for their portion of the program. 2) Art teachers, Miss Bolus and Mr. Beveridge, plan for their students' exhibit. 3) Key Club members and art students help prepare the cafeteria for the Arts Festival.

Delegates Represent School In Boys' And Girls' State And Science Fair

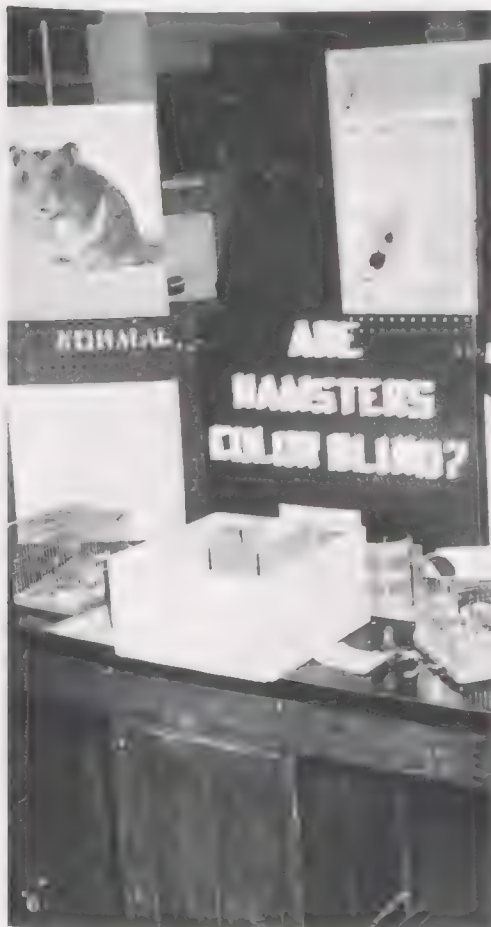

Girl's State delegate, Judy Keeler, was chosen to attend Capital University in Columbus to learn about parliamentary procedures.

Boy's State delegates, Jed Roth, John Buker, and Fred Stern attended Ohio University.

The annual M.H.S. Science Fair was held March 10th. Starting early in January, many students organized their projects and began work. Twenty-one students had entries in the Science Fair. Out of the twenty-one participants, eight received superior ratings. Students who obtained a superior rating were able to attend the District Science Fair in Ashland on April 3. Those who received a superior there were eligible to go to the State Fair in Columbus, on April 10th.

1) A superior rating was given to Tim Christman whose father is shown here looking over the Science Fair. 2) Nature was well represented at the 1971 Science Fair. 3) Some of the participants are relaxing now that the hard work is over. 4) Last minute preparations are made by Rick Widders with his project of the clotting time of frogs. 5) Boy's and Girl's State delegates are Jed Roth, Fred Stern, John Buker, and Judy Keeler. 6) This project on hamsters, by Sue Klingensmith, received a superior rating. 7) Another superior winner is Mike Chandler who is anticipating serious competition at the District finals at Ashland College. 8) A project well done brings a smile to Debra Kindinger's face.

1) Mojca and Pat spend time in the library, studying together. 2) Just like American girls, Mojca is particular about grooming details. 3) French, as Mojca learns, takes work in any country. 4) Mojca poses with her American family, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Moore and their dog Ringer.

Foreign Exchange Students Adjust Well to American Life

Mojca Ausec, a senior from Kranj, Yugoslavia, attended M.H.S. through the Youth for Fellowship Program. She lived with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Moore. Mojca arrived in August of last year just in time for the beginning of the school year.

In Kranj, Mojca walked to school and studied thirteen subjects a week. She hopes to study literature at a university in a nearby town when she returns home. Mojca lives with her parents and two brothers in Kranj. She speaks English, Slovene, Serbo-Croat (both languages used in Yugoslavia), and some French. Mojca's hobbies are skiing, swimming, and reading.

M.H.S. enjoyed another exchange student this year from Paraná, Argentina. Her name is Maria Patricia Sarrot. Her American family was Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham, Robin, and Mark.

Pat has already graduated and plans to enter a private college when she returns home. Her majors are in economics and politics, leading to a possible career in public relations. Pat is from a family of eight with three sisters and one brother. Her father is a podiatrist.

Swimming, water skiing, reading, writing, horseback riding, and movies take up most of Pat's free time.

1) It's always a treat to receive mail from home. 2) Pat Sarrot's American family is Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham, Robin, and Mark. 3) One can easily see that Robin and Pat enjoy playing records and talking.

M.H.S. Students Help Faculty And Principals Run School

Students at M.H.S. again helped in the offices and bookstore this year. The aids ran errands and took messages and passes to teachers and students, and also typed and sorted various materials for the secretaries. Bookstore workers helped Mr. Sauder with his customers every morning, and library assistants worked different periods during the day shelving books, filing, and checking books in and out for students.

1) The Manhigan Sports Staff consists of Vickie Hunt, Ted Williams, and Jeff Boals. 2) Junior, Lynn Hull, heads up the faculty section. 3) The Clubs Staff is handled by Kathy Smouse and Debbie Tucker. 4) Decisions, by a mutual understanding, are made by editor-in-chief, Doug Seiler, his assistant, Beth Clancy, and advisor, Mr. Gross.

Enthusiastic Students Form This Year's Manhigan Staff

Leading the Manhigan staff this year was Doug Seiler, Beth Clancy, and Mr. David Gross, editor-in-chief, assistant editor, and advisor, respectively. These three selected the new members at the end of the year. Major factors in their selection were teacher's recommendations and English grades.

1) Proudly posing after a section well done are Jed Roth, Mindy Cockley, and Cathy Widders, members of the Activities Staff. 2) Senior section members, Judy Keeler, John Bogner, and Steve Smith, prepare another section. 3) The Business Staff is made up of Kathy Belcher, Heidi Gallagher, Delee Baker, Sue Richardson, Vicki Simpson, Cheryl Johnston, Pam Dykstra, and Mr. Cleaver.

Hyphonerian Brings Current Events To Students Of M.H.S.

The Hyphonerian is a means of communication between the students, faculty, and administration. Under the guidance of Mr. Harold Robinson, the Hyphonerian staff reported and published current school news each month.

On April 23rd, Mr. Robinson accompanied a group of editors to the Northwestern Ohio Journalism Convention at Bowling Green University. There they competed against other schools in writing essays. The editors placed high in the standings.

1) The Hyphonerian is headed up by editors, Fred Stern and Janet Lucas. 2) The artist, Jeff Boals, spends many hours working on drawings. 3) Advisor, Mr. Robinson, assists the many Hyphonerian staffs. 4) This year's sports staff consists of Bob Harris, Joel Weber, Scott Nixon, and Lloyd Shawber. 5) This year's news editors are Dawn Hager and Trish Wallace. 6) Typists, Loretta Dean and Kathy Belcher, work long hours preparing perfect copies for Hypo. 7) The feature editor, Jana Fisher, is assisted by Susie Hall. 8.) The business staff, under the guidance of Mr. Harold Ramsey, consists of Tharp, Eckstrom, Restelli, Mast, Thompson, Wiley, Landis, Baker, Richardson, Simpson, White, Ramsey, Harris. 9) News is reported to the Hyphonerian by Julie Santoro and Julie Parker.

Literary Magazine, Composed Of Student Works, Is

New To M.H.S.

The Spectrum, M.H.S.'s new literary magazine, was under the direction of Mr. Richard Cole and Miss Rene Papenhausen. Jed Roth and Zoe Ann Sheehan shared the guidance as editor and assistant editor.

Students at M.H.S. submitted poems, essays, and personal writings to be judged by the various staffs. If accepted, their writings were published in the Spectrum.

Other staffs included in the Spectrum were publicity, business, art, and circulation.

1) Members of the Spectrum Staff are Gabor, Roth, Letizia, Uhl, Steverson, Warren, (standing) Papenhausen, Cole, Restelli, Eckstrom, and Sheehan. 2) English teacher, Miss Poppenheiser is assistant advisor. 3) Circulation of the Spectrum is handled by Joann Warren and Mike Gabor. 4) Artwork is decided on by Becki Uhl and Helen Eckstrom. 5) Final decisions are up to Jed Roth, editor, Zoe Ann Sheehan, assistant editor, and advisor, Mr. Cole. 6) The Publicity Staff is composed of Cookie Letizia and Debbie Steverson. 7) Sherri Restelli and Sue Scott head up the Business Staff.

Mansfield Senior High Marching And Concert Bands

Display Varied Talents Throughout The 1970-71

School Year!

This year's marching band, under the direction of Mr. Hall, Mr. Leyerle, and Mr. Hudson, performed eight halftime shows exhibiting numerous formations. The band also represented the area in the Halloween and Labor Day Parades, and the Miss Ohio Parade in Sandusky.

The Concert Band received a superior rating in the District Band Contest. Also, the band hosted the Buckeye Band Festival.

1) ROW 1: Hood, Wesner, Hoff, Massey, Ewers, Widders, Roth. ROW 2: Krizan, Wood, Hamlin, Scott, Schaffer, Tolle, Davis, Smith, Davis, Jones. The M.H.S. Stage Band Participates In Many School Activities

Activities

The M.H.S. Stage Band, under the direction of Mr. Leyerle, is well known through out the school and community. It provided entertainment during the Senior Class Play and Varsity Varieties.

The Stage Band also played at many area proms and dances. The Stage Band is made up primarily of woodwinds and brass players from the orchestra.

1) This year's twirlers are, Cookie Letizia, Nancy Letizia, Michele Ewers, Cathy Widders and drum major Jed Roth. 2) The fire routine is the highlight of the Homecoming half-time show. 3) Early morning rehearsals are held before school and during the summer. 4) The Fanfare by Cookie Letizia is the opening of each show. 5) The band room is a place for music as well as lounging. 6) The Stage Band plays at many school activities. 7) Bass player, Bill Phegley, also plays the harmonica for a different effect. 8) Director, Mr. Leyerle, figures out many band engagements during the year. 9) Drummer, George Wesner, adds a beat as well as an unusual appearance.

Student Council Emphasizes Community

Involvement

Again this year, Student Council turned its attention to community and national affairs. This shows the trend for student involvement in social and economic problems. A few of their activities included sponsorship of the traditional Track Assembly, participation in the March of Dimes Walk-a-thon, collecting for the Pupil's Civic Fund, delivering Christmas baskets, and running all school elections.

1) The capable officers of Student Council are Bob Myers, president; Toni Mulholland, treasurer; and Dawn Hager, secretary. 2) Student Council representatives include: ROW 1: R. Donnenwirth, S. McCallister, D. Sanborn, J. Bogner, J. Bogner, J. Hill, B. Myers, T. Mulholland, D. Hager. ROW 2: L. Lucas, D. Miller, G. Moga, D. Rogers, A. Sqrow, L. Henry, P. Hardin, V. Schlupp, T. Christman, S. McCabe, J. Keeler, P. White, B. Parr. ROW 4: E. Baldrige, B. Riggelman, P. Patterson, K. Butts, R. Clemons.

Year

Mansfield Senior High was very fortunate to have such a fine and expertly directed choir this year. The concert choir traveled to many concerts and contests, giving outstanding performances throughout the year. A Boys' and Girls' Glee Club, also under Miss Shaffer's direction, excelled in vocal expression.

1) Acute attention is necessary for a successful choir. 2) The Boys' Glee Club displays unique musical ability. 3) The Christmas Concert gives the concert choir an opportunity to express their talents.

The MHS Orchestra Receives Superior Rating at the State Contest

The Mansfield Senior High Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Hall and Mr. Leyerle, received a superior rating in the State Contest. The orchestra also provided accompaniment for the Class Play, the Fine Arts Festival, and Class Day. The String Ensemble, a part of the orchestra, played for many banquets and meetings.

The officers were Tim Allen, president; Rick Krizan, vice-president; Sue Demyan, secretary; and Deri Sanborn, treasurer.

1) A few last words of advice before the final concert are given by Mr. Hall. 2) The French horn section, under the leadership of Ramsay Slugg, proves an asset to the orchestra. 3) The M.H.S. Orchestra gives a performance. 4) Long hours of planning and rehearsing are spent by Mr. Hall. 5) The trumpet section consists of Steve Smith, Dave Henry, Danielle Barber, Mindy Cockley, and Rick Karsmizki.

1) The death of Julius Caesar, alias Loretta Dean, is mourned by his wife and friends. 2) Caught skipping school, John Bogner receives his punishment from Sergeant Sandy Peay. 3) Make-up is an important part of any production. 4) The high steps of the Gene Carroll dancers dazzle the audience. 5) High school puppy love comes back to Cookie Letizia and J.V. Sullivan, as Toni Mulholland and Ron Clemons do some reminiscing of their own.

Class Of Seventy-One Holds Twenty-Fifth

Memories of student life revolved around the theme "Remember When", as the Senior Class portrayed its twenty-fifth reunion.

This year's director was Mindy Cockley. The job of producer was handled jointly by Beckie Stehle and Wilbert Turner. Kathy Gross, the business manager, was assisted by Patti White.

Committee chairmen included: theme and script, Sue Bottomley; set design, Doug Miller; stage crew, Bob Riggelman; tickets, Bonnie Parr; publicity, Sharon Walls; program, Linda Browarsky; music, Bill Phegley; make-up, Eileen Murphy; and usherettes, Margo Walker.

Reunion At V.V.

1) The theme of V.V. is sung by Alice Bond and Aaron Echols. 2) Old schoolmates, J.V. Sullivan, Dawn Hager, Toni Mulholland, and Margo Walker, talk over the good old days. 3) Teacher Debbie Steverson tells Sarge Peay her strategy for preventing students from skipping. Co-workers Sue Geyer and Cathy Widders await their turns. 4) Make-up committee member Dana Landis transforms Sandy Peay into Sarge.

1) Roman countrymen, Cindy Lester and Lee-Anne Coleman, assist Julius Caesar, Loretta Dean, with her toga. 2) Class reunion M.C. Bob Riggleman entertains the audience. 3) A few gray hairs are given to Ron Clemons by Rosie Beard. 4) The junior girls' act revolved around the first day of each year of school. 5) Rock group, The Walls of Dignity, combine with the Dancers of Dignity for a very popular act.

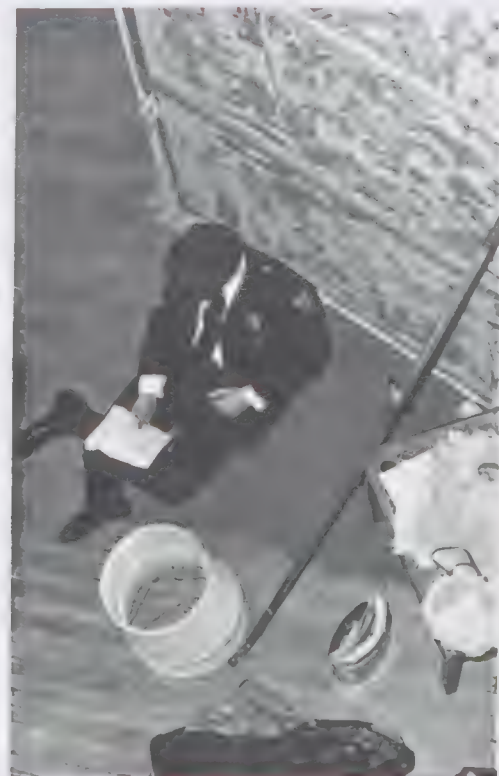

“Remember When” Selected As Varsity Varieties Theme

1) V.V. heads, stage crew members, and performers have a little different view of the acts. 2) Set committee members, Doug Seiler, Doug Miller, and Mike Gabor, take a minute to relax. 3) The nagging wife, portrayed by Dawn Hager, sighs, as her husband, J.V. Sullivan, pours “another” drink. Old friend, Toni Mulholland, can laugh since she doesn’t have the problem herself.

Seniors Present Comedy Ever Since Eve

1) Prompter Russell Bishop assists Mike Dickson with his lines. 2) Those last few minutes before curtain time are spent rehearsing, as Carl Hicks demonstrates. 3) The better moments at the play, are behind the scenes. 4) Director Mrs. Martha Thomas supervises the application of make-up.

Under the Direction of Mrs. Thomas

On March 25-26

This year's Senior Class Play, Ever Since Eve, a delightful three act comedy, was presented on March 25 and 26 in the school auditorium.

The two casts were aided in the success of their performances by Mrs. Thomas, the director, and the seven committees and their chairmen. They were: Tickets, Sharon Walls; House, Cookie Letizia; Publicity, Lynn Dinges; Properties, Mindy Cockley and Terri Anthony; Make-up Sabra Grafton; Usherettes, Chris Brent; Prompter, Russ Bishop; and Stage Manager, Carl Hicks.

1) The production of The Penguin is complicated by the arrival of assistant editor Dawn Hager. 2) Some fun accompanies a play rehearsal as Judy Keeler accidentally topples down the auditorium stairs.

1) Thursday night's cast includes S. Baehrens, J. Buker, J. Weber, W. Turner, C. Johnston, S. Nixon, M. Dickson, J. Lewis, D. Hager, C. Hicks, K. Davis, M. Siatek, P. White, L. Coleman, and F. Stern. 2) A romance between Ronnie Clemons and Rosie Beard results from a small cropping error of Eileen Murphy. 3) Jim Lewis and Mike Dickson voice opposition to a girl on the newspaper staff.

1) Sallie Dill expresses indignation when she learns of John Buker's Yankee descendents. 2) The Friday night cast includes R. Clemons, R. Beard, M. Dickson, J. Lewis, E. Murphy, C. Hicks, P. White, M. Sistik, V. Treace, S. Baehrens, W. Turner, S. Dill, J. Weber, J. Buker, S. Nixon.

Class Of Seventy-One Begins Final Activities At

1) The award for valedictorian is accepted by Jed Roth. 2) Selected by the University Club is the outstanding girl, Janet Lucas. 3) A Student Council attainment award is received by Mindy Cockley. 4) Senior Class President John Buker welcomes seniors and guests to the awards program. 5) Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Robert E. Glass, presents Jana Fisher with her salutatorian honors.

Annual Class Day

Outstanding seniors were honored at the annual Class Day held May 21, 1971. President John Buker led the red and white robed seniors into the auditorium where they received awards for achievement in different areas of school life.

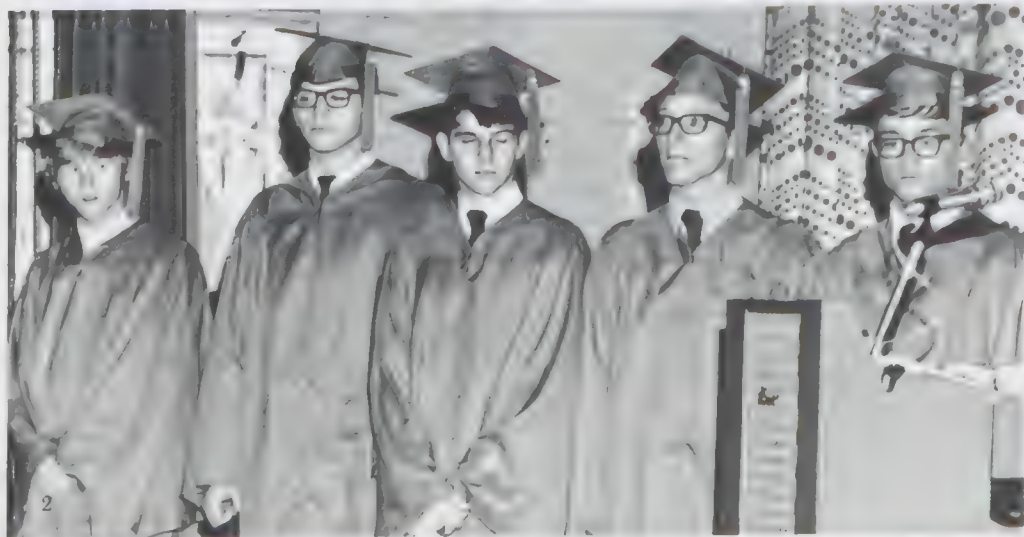

Ranking at the top of their class, Jed Roth and Jana Fisher received valedictorian and salutatorian awards respectively. Gold honor cords and tassels were presented to the top ten per cent of the senior class.

Mike Gabor and Janet Lucas were named the outstanding seniors by the University Club. Runners-up for the award were Bob Myers, Fred Stern, Tim Allen, Larry Baker, Jana Fisher, Trish Wallace, Kathy Gross, and Judy Keeler.

The Michigan Honor Trophy was presented to John Buker and Trish Wallace, while Janet Lucas accepted recognition from the Daughters of the American Revolution and the American Association of University Women. Joe Petrella was selected as recipient of the Pete Henry Memorial Award for outstanding performance in athletics.

Annually, Mr. Plough presents awards to seniors who he feels have done a great deal for the school "behind the scenes". This year he selected two boys, Ron Clemons and Mike Dickson, as worthy of this recognition.

1) Senior boys await their entrance to the Class Day program. 2) The outstanding boy nominees await the decision. 3) Class advisors, Mr. David Gross and Mrs. Eilene Smith, are presented with gifts for a job well done. 4) The principal's award is presented to Ron Clemons by Mr. Arlo Plough.

1) Students take time out to chat after dinner. 2) An English Lit student is swept away by Mr. Pugh. 3) Doug Miller and Linda Lucas enjoy a slow dance. 4) A poolside discussion gives the couples time to relax.

“Polynesian Paradise” Provides A Colorful Setting For The Class Of Seventy-One’s Senior Prom

“Polynesian Paradise” was selected as the theme of this year’s prom, held at the Ramada Inn on May twenty-eighth. Formally attired seniors enjoyed the buffet dinner before moving to the dance floor. Attractive floral arrangements and palm trees around the pool set the Polynesian theme. Music was provided by Eddie Nix and his band on the dance floor, while a second band provided entertainment in the pool area.

A movie, John and Mary, was shown at the Madison Theater from one to three o’clock. Bowling and pool at Park Lanes from three to six o’clock were the other activities enjoyed by seniors at the after prom.

1) Bowling is a major after prom activity for many seniors. 2) A game of pool is enjoyed by Eileen Murphy. 3) Vickie Hunt and Shane O’Hara wait for the band to come back from their break. 4) A floating floral island adds to the Polynesian atmosphere.

Commencement And Baccalaureate Mark

The Last Formal Assemblies For Seniors

The Senior Class of 1971 formally ended its stay at Mansfield Senior High on June fourth at Arlin Field. Under clear skies the class of 443 students accepted their diplomas. Lt. Colonel William A. "Pete" Knight, a former graduate of Mansfield Senior High, spoke mainly of three areas: education, responsibility, and patience. Class officers John Buker and Judy Keeler led the red and white robed seniors to their seats.

The Reverend Jerry L. Schmalenberger delivered the address at Baccalaureate, held May 30 at Arlin Filed.

1) Seniors smile after receiving their diplomas. 2) Senior girls line up at the southeast gate and wait to march to their seats. 3) Rows of red and white robed seniors add to the charm of the outdoor setting. 4) Principal Arlo Plough congratulates each senior with a handshake and a few brief words.

Despite Lack Of Size, Tygers Show Great Desire

And Potential

The 1970 Tyger football team ended the season with a somewhat disappointing 2-7-1 record against some of the top teams in the state. They lacked size, but not desire, and showed many people that they could hold their own against state ranked teams.

At the end of the season, awards were given to the top players at an assembly. Greg Warndorf was voted most valuable by the team members.

1) Touchdown! 2) Senior end, Jeff Weber, makes the grab. 3) A Madison ball carrier is stopped by Jim Lewis with help from John Hafford. 4) Tyger defense men wrap up a Fremont runner. 5) Senior halfback Ray Webb breaks into open field. 6) ROW 1: Turner, Buker, Baehrens, Weber, Bishop, Nixon, Warndorf, Mason, Hipp, Webb, McKean, Shulko, Petrella, Collins. ROW 2: Mulholland, Castle, Weirich, Blakley, Pender, Koroknay, Williams, Lewis, Slugg, Hafford, Dickson, Williams, Bibler, Lamie. ROW 3: Black, Coleman, Pittman, Yokem, Weber Bailey, Lee, Brown, Steiner, Hatcher, Coley, Montgomery, Turner, Breedlove, Sevdalis.

A Dream, The Product Of Your Imagination, Is Better Than Real Life

The charming Alice Bond reigned over the 1970 Homecoming assembly, "You Stepped Out of a Dream", sponsored by the Junior class.

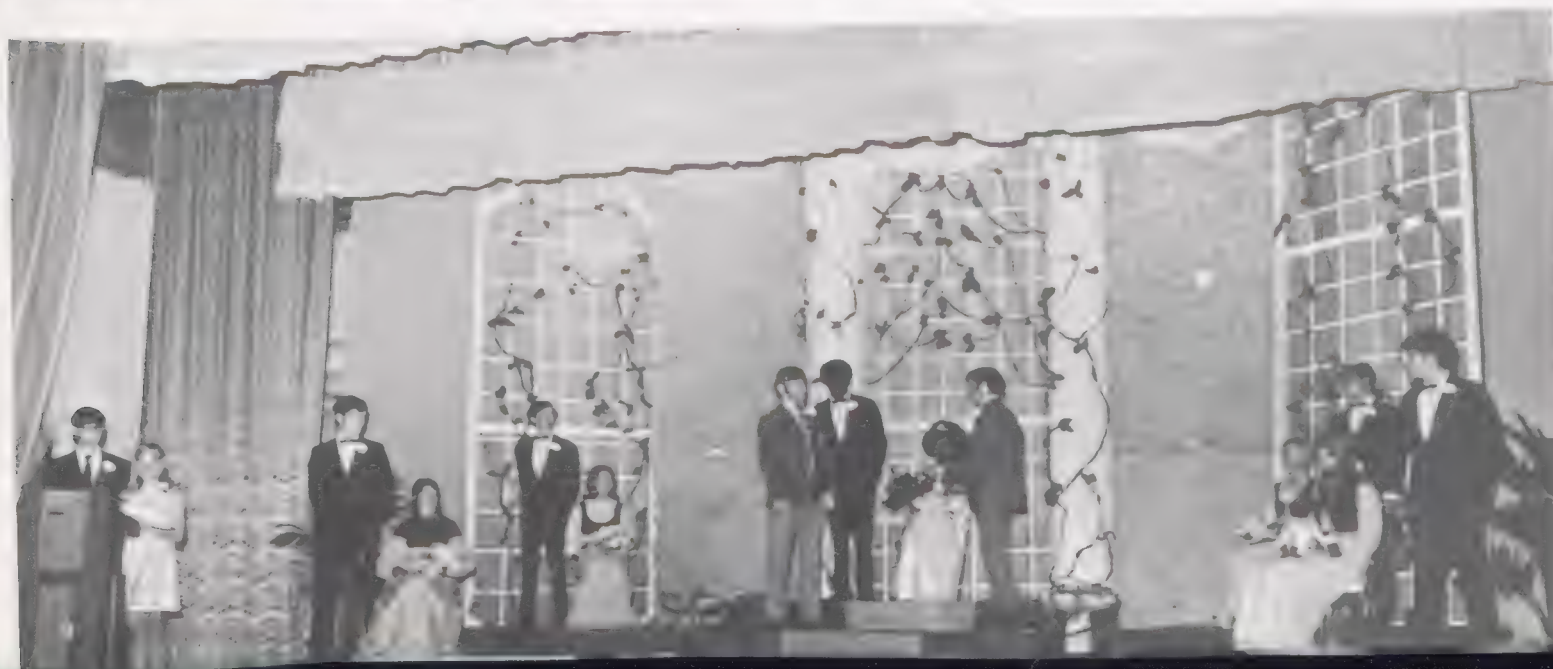

Queen Alice was escorted by Melvin Jordan. Her attendants were Nancy Calland, escorted by Marty Lamie; Robin Webb, escorted by Kim Pittman; Lori Beeman, escorted by Bruce Weirich; and Julie Parker, escorted by Gary Conn.

After being crowned by Brenda Wiley, 1969 Homecoming Queen, she was then presented the game ball by Greg Warndorf and Chuck Mason, co-captains of the 1970 Tyger football squad.

Joyce Lutz and Victor DeLorenzo, Mistress and Master of Ceremonies, introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Ken McCally, a former Tyger. The program also included music by the Senior High orchestra under the direction of Mr. Percy Hall and Mr. David Leyerle, with a vocal solo by Aaron Echols.

Queen Alice and her court reigned over the Lorain Admiral King vs. Mansfield Senior High game. A dance honoring the queen and court was held in the Pete Henry Gymnasium following the game.

1) The presentation of the crown by the 1969 Homecoming Queen, Brenda Wiley, is the highlight of the assembly. 2) The lovely Miss Julie Parker is escorted by Mr. Gary Conn. 3) The charming Miss Nancy Calland is proudly escorted by Mr. Marty Lamie. 4) The aisle is graced by Miss Lori Beeman, escorted by Mr. Bruce Weirich. 5) Gliding to the stage is Miss Robin Webb, escorted by Mr. Kim Pittman. 6) Joy and amazement at being chosen 1970 Homecoming Queen overcome Alice Bond as she receives the news from Bob Myers. 7) President of the Junior class, Robert Bowen, introduces the Mistress and Master of Ceremonies. 8) Mistress and Master of Ceremonies, Joyce Lurtz and Victor DeLorenzo, introduce the queen and her court. 9) Blue with red roses served as a background for the dream-like assembly.

The 1970 Homecoming Court Is More Beautiful Than Real Life;

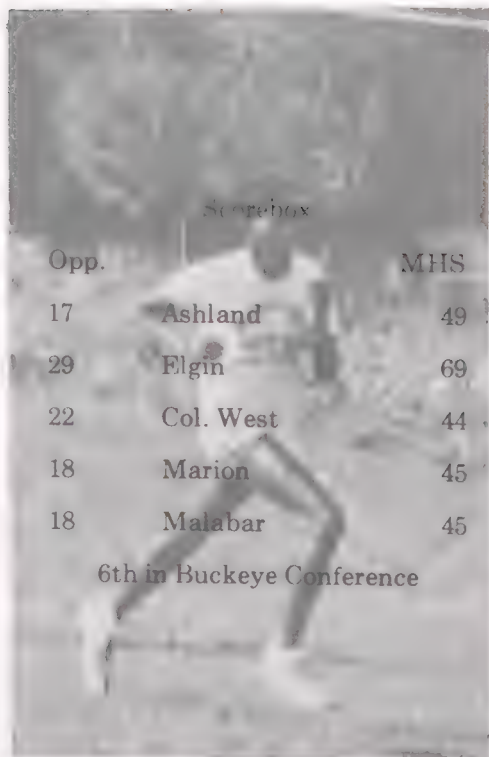

They Have All, "Stepped Out Of A Dream."

1) The girls anticipate a beautiful homecoming as they take their places at the game. 2) Disappointment shown by Michelle Ewers and Mary Anne Ott displays the feelings of all. 3) "Go Tygers!" cheer Nancy Call and Lori Beeman. 4) Spirit erupts from the 1970 Tyger Marching Band. 5) Queen Alice gracefully accepts the game ball from co-captains Greg Warndorf and Chuck Mason. 6) Queen Alice reigns over the assembly. 7) Highlights of the halftime show is Jed Roth's fiery high toss. 8) A fighting Tyger makes a spectacular tackle. 9) Long hours are put into the decorations by John Bogner and Debbie Hill.

6th in Buckeye Conference

The 1970 Cross Country team had very few seniors, and lack of experience hurt them in dual meets. At seasons end, Willie Bronson was voted most valuable runner. He dropped his time from 11:07 to 10:28 by the last meet. Jim Erdenberger was high point junior, and Shawn Todd received high point sophomore honors.

Tygers Are Very Successful Through-Out Seasonal Competition

The 1970-71 Tyger basketball team had a very successful season against strong opponents. After a three game losing streak, the mighty Tygers came back to win eight games straight. The Tygers ended up second in the Buckeye Conference behind a strong Findlay team. In tournament action, the Tygers were able to play two crosstown teams. The first team, the Madison Rams, was soundly beaten by the Tygers. The Tygers came out on top, after going into an overtime with the Malabar Falcons. Most Valuable Player and Most Improved were presented to Skeeter Cameron. Other award winners were James Barnett, Henry Harris, Ron Arnett and Keith Shulko.

Schedule

Coach Clarence Roessler, With help from Steve Toms, led a small team to a 4-9 dual meet record. Lack of depth was the main factor, as most opposing teams were twice the size of the Tygers.

In the Buckeye Conference Championships, senior Jeff Boals swam to two first places, in the 100 and 200 yard freestyle races. His time in the 200 (1:56.4) bettered his own school record set last year. Toby Shawber finished second in the 50 yard free and fourth in the 100 free. Other placers were Ted Williams, Joe Roscoe, Jim Erdenberger, Greg Bookwalter, Tom Finnerty and Rick Widders.

Boals placed fifth and sixth in the 100 and 200 at the District meet, and advanced to the State, placing 18th in the 200.

At the awards assembly, third year awards were received by Rick Widders, Toby Shawber and Jeff Boals, who also got the most valuable award. Most improved went to sophomore Tom Finnerty.

"Spring Fantasy" Features The 1970 Mansfield Relays Track Court

As is traditional, this year's Mansfield Relays was celebrated by an assembly to crown the queen and present her court. The Mistress and Master of Ceremonies, Toni Mulholland and Bob Myers, introduced Queen Vicki Treace and her court, Eileen Murphy, Vickie Hunt, Ola Bowles, and Vivian Bowles. They were escorted by Alan Taylor, Jeff Weber, Tom Hipp, Ray Webb, and Ralph Rawls, respectively.

Representing the track team, Joe Petrella and Rich Peters crowned Queen Vicki. After a short speech by Track Coach Al Ward, the guest speaker, Mr. William Fowler, reminisced on his years as a track member at M.H.S.

Mr. Hall directed the orchestra which provided music for the assembly.

Queen Vicki and her court presented the awards to the winners at the track meet.

1) Queen Vicki Treace and attendants Ola Bowles, Vickie Hunt, Eileen Murphy, and Vivian Bowles take a moment out after the annual track assembly. 2) Mr. William Fowler is the guest speaker for the assembly. 3) Escort Alan Taylor makes his final bow to Queen Vicki. 4) After being crowned by track members, Joe Petrella and Rich Peters, Queen Vicki delivers her acceptance speech to the student body. 5) This year's Mistress and Master of Ceremonies are Toni Mulholland and Bob Myers.

School Running Smoothly And Efficiently

This year our school board has had no changes. Mr. George Murray and Mr. George Hall have remained as president and vice-president respectively. Mrs. Frieda Forrest continues as the Clerk-Treasurer.

The administrative staff is currently undergoing some change of duties. Mr. Glen Robinson, in charge of business and school plant management, and Mr. Wilbur Young, Director of Personnel, announced their resignations this year. Their duties have been absorbed by other administrative personnel. Mr. Robert E. Glass has completed his fourth year as Superintendent of Schools.

Mr. Arlo Plough continues as administrator at Mansfield Senior High, along with assistants, Mr. Thomas Pierson and Mr. D. Wayne Powell.

1) Mr. Plough says a word of thanks to members of the Spectrum staff, after receiving the first copy. 2) Mr. and Mrs. Powell enjoy talking with students at the Senior Prom. 3) Mr. Pierson calls each senior to the platform to receive his diploma.

Communication Among MHS Students

The aim of the English Department is to improve the student use of the English Language. The improvement comes in a student's ability to convey or receive information through speaking, writing, reading, viewing and listening. Students are also encouraged to enter all types of language arts contests in addition to regular classroom work.

1) As English teacher, Hi-Y advisor, Key Club advisor, Sr. Class advisor, and Manhigan advisor, Mr. Gross keeps very busy. 2) For Mr. Pugh, good grammar is essential in every composition class. 3) After long hours of teaching, Mr. Derr takes time to grade papers. 4) As teacher of the Reading Lab, Miss Houlett remains cheerful after a hectic day. 5) Advisor of the Hyphonerian staff, Mr. Robinson confers with his editor-in-chief, Fred Stern. 6) Although Mr. Gibson is a class advisor and a speech and debate teacher, he still finds time to relax during the day. 7) The library project room is used quite often by Mr. Waite and his classes.

B) Polly Davis, French II, III, IV. C) Virginia Howard, Latin III, IV. D) Mary Spiggle, Spanish I, II, III, IV.

The aim of the Foreign Language Department is to teach students the language, both written and spoken, and to give the students a better understanding of the people, their customs, and the culture of their land.

1) Stories give Mrs. Jasinski's students a better understanding of the Spanish Culture. 2) Class participation is a big factor in Mrs. Cicolani's German class. 3) Book collection at the end of the year is a happy occasion for Miss Howar. 4) Pronunciation is stressed in Miss Spiggle's Spanish classes.

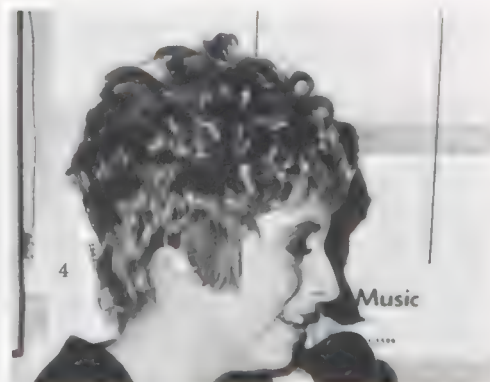

Fine Arts Department Fosters Creativity

In Students

The art course aim is to give students a better appreciation of art. It gives students who have real talent in art a chance to improve or develop that talent. This is accomplished by stressing their own creativity and originalities.

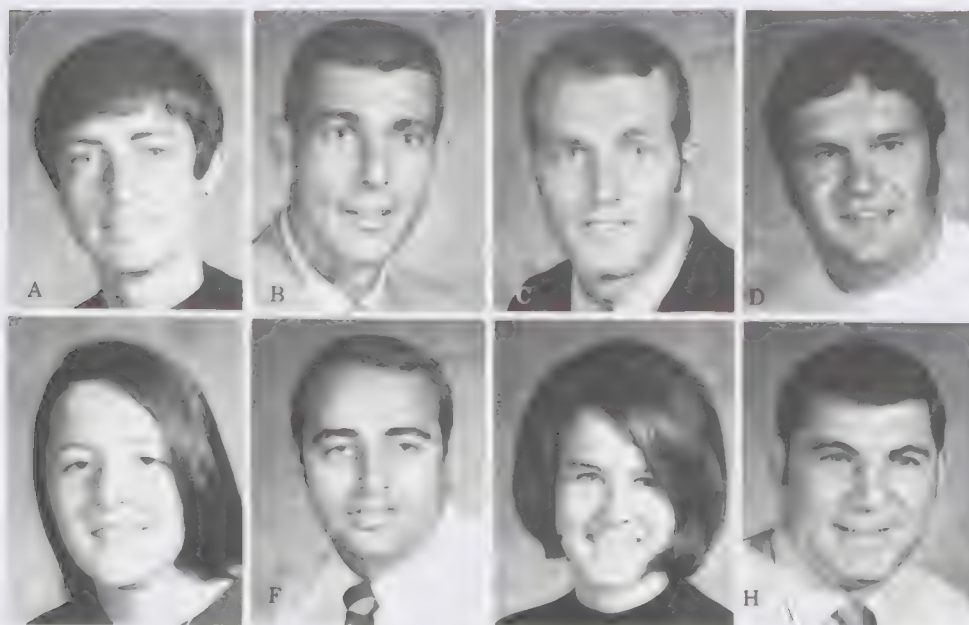

In the Music Department students are taught music to its fullest extent. The band learns marching and formations for our half time entertainment during football season. Our vocal section did especially well this year. They received many high honors while in competition.

1) During a free moment Mr. Hall tunes his violin. 2) Pictures, paintings, and all other art work must be checked before being sent to the cafeteria for the annual Arts Festival. 3) One of Mr. Leyerle's major jobs is directing the Pep Band at basketball games and pep assemblies. 4) Arrangements must be made by Miss Schafer for choir engagements.

A) Mary Jane Bolus, Art I, II, III, IV. B) Percy Hall, Band, Orchestra. C) David Leyerle, Band, Music Theory, Orchestra.

Physical, Drivers' Education Teach Coordination;

Economics. E) Diane Price, Typing I & II, Record Keeping. F) Paul Sweeney, Record Keeping. G) Barbara Williams, Shorthand I & II, Typing II. H) Woodrow Williams, C.O.E., Bookkeeping II.

For Office Work

Physical Fitness is the key word to the Physical Education Department. The course includes First Aid and Health, besides the regular gym classes.

Many sports are taught in order to give students a greater appreciation of the sport and its rules. Learning skills and sportsmanship are important when it comes to Physical Education.

Driver Education offers students a chance to better understand the traffic laws. This is achieved through book work and behind-the-wheel driving for all students. The driving simulator was introduced to the driver education course for the first time this year.

The Business Education Department offers students the opportunity to gain skills necessary for office work. Programs offering a half day of school and a half day of practical experience in a job are offered to qualified seniors.

1) Besides teaching business courses, Mr. Groff is treasurer of the Athletic Department. 2) As school treasurer, Mr. Neuerman puts in many hours of work.

Teachers Help Students Prepare

1) The views of his students count a lot to Mr.
Gantz. 2) Class discussions play a major role in
Mr. Thoms' classes. 3) In his spare time, Mr.
Bartlett acts as advisor to Tyger Faith Teens.
4) Explanation is a big factor in Mr. Sadowski's drafting classes.

For Vocational Jobs In The Future

The Industrial Arts Department teaches students many skills such as drafting, wood working, and welding. These skills enable the students to be better prepared for vocational jobs later in life.

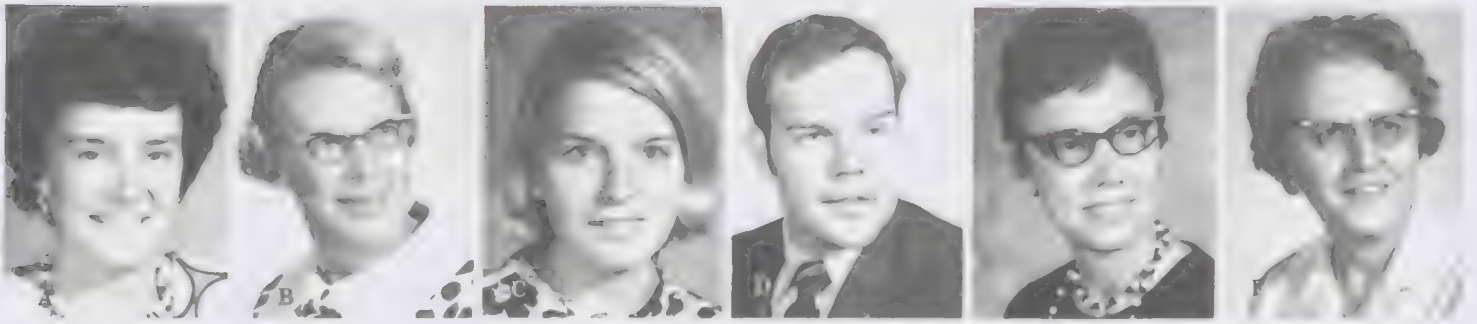

A) Nick Miu, Junior Electronics. B) Joseph Mollica, Junior Vocational Drafting. C) James Oliveri, Junior Auto Shop. D) Billie Rastetter, Junior Auto Shop. E) Curtis Smith, Senior Vocational Electronics. F) John J. Thoms, D. E. Sales and Theory.

1) Supervision is part of Mr. Ammons job in the auto shop. 2) The best part of teaching is going home, as Mr. Rastetter's smile shows. 3) Electronics, taught by Mr. Smith keeps one quite occupied.

Secretaries, Counselors And Librarians

A) Betty Albers, secretary to Principal. B) Idella Bair, Secretary to Attendance Office. C) Susie Burton Secretary to Music Department. D) Mel Coldman, Vocational Counselor. E) Ann Ernst, Secretary to Assistant Principal. F) Janet Gochanaur, Attendance coordinator.

1) Office Work is given deep concentration by Mrs. Ernst, secretary to Mr. Pierson. 2) As secretary to Mr. Plough, Mrs. Albers is kept very busy. 3) Mrs. Lee handles all incoming phone calls and gets messages to the people concerned.

Help Direct Students For The Future

Secretaries contribute a lot to keep the school running smoothly. They take care of daily announcements, the I.B.M. cards and materials for students' grade cards, recorded absences, and messages, answer questions for students, and help organize graduation for the Seniors.

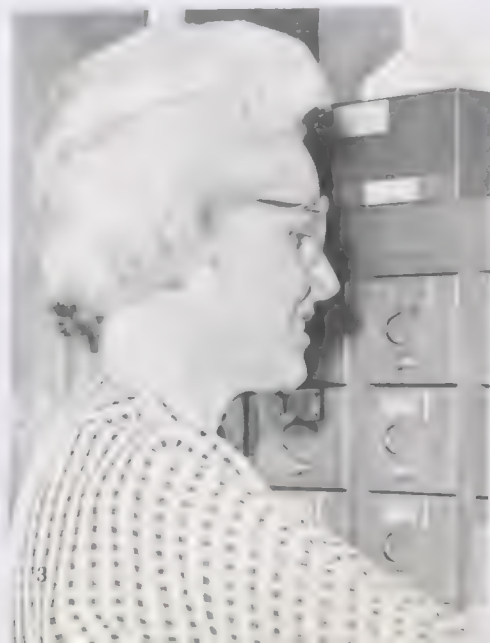

The counselors do all they can to guide and prepare students for the future. They advise students on Colleges that might suit them. They help underclassmen with the choosing of subjects they need and want to go into a certain field or course of study.

The librarians help students find books, magazines, pamphlets, and other pieces of material which might help the students in their studies. The library also has many helpful machines, such as the copy machines and microfilm machines to help students find the materials or information they need quickly and easily.

A) Virginia Imhoff, Counselor. B) Virginia Lee, Secretary to Assistant Principal. C) Sally Markham, Secretary to Counselors. D) Martha Rausch, Librarian. E) Charles Shook, Librarian F) Dorothy Tatgenhorst, Secretary to the Library.

1) The typewriter consumes much of Mrs. Markham's time, being secretary to the Counselors. 2) One of Mrs. Imhoff's major jobs as Counselor is to figure students' grade averages. 3) As the librarians secretary, Mrs. Tatgenhorst, has to check files frequently.

Cafeteria Workers And Custodians Work Very Hard

1) Cafeteria workers are: F. Kochheiser, E. Pender, I. Dick, C. Miller, L. Lutz, H. Grasser, H. Willis, G. Johnson, B. Efird, M. Wagner, D. Jenkins, and I. Whisler. 2) One of the members of the custodian staff, Mr. Dials, finds his work quite interesting. 3) The preparing of food is a big job, as shown by Mrs. Johnson. 4) One of Mr. Wynn's daily jobs is checking throughout the building. 5) Head custodian, Mr. Robert Wynn, takes a break in the sun during a spare moment.

Teachers Are Sometimes Caught Unaware

1) Students of Mr. Peffenbaugh's Biology II class are anxious as they prepare to leave for one of their frequent field trips. 2) In the course of the game Coach Mulholland and Coach Lutz shout encouragement to the defense. 3) A sigh of relief issues from Mrs. Spiggle, as the last bell of the day rings. 4) Mr. Flanagan prepares to put the morning gym class through their daily exercises. 5) A moment's break between class changes always brings a smile to Laura Evilsizer. 6) Mr. Gantz can't help but smile, as he gets an unusual response to his question.

Complete High School Careers

We, the Senior Class of 1971, entered Mansfield Senior High just three years ago as nonentity Sophomores; no one knew our names and few cared to learn them. But we bound ourselves together and elected four competent class officers: John Buker, President; Bob Myers, Vice President; Trish Wallace, Treasurer; and Judy Keeler, Secretary. We asked two of the greatest teachers at MHS to be our class advisors and they accepted, Mrs. Eilene Smith and Mr. David Gross.

One candy sale, and a Sophomore Class Party later, and — we were Juniors. Two new class officers were elected to replace the old incumbents: Ramsay Slugg, Vice President, and Fred Stern, Treasurer. A "Today, Tomorrow, and Forever" Homecoming, one candy sale, a car wash, and a Junior Class Party at Mohican later, and we were Seniors.

Seniors! Our underclass years were behind us now, and suddenly we were the ones on top of school life. We found ourselves involved, reaching out, growing, and being the leaders. We all sought our own identities, excelling in areas from auto mechanics to home economics, from athletics to physics, and from early birds to calculus.

Together as a class along with talent from the underclassmen, we staged a successful "Remember When" Varsity Varieties. As our Senior months grew fewer and fewer, our heads turned and we began looking ahead, toward the Prom, Baccalaureate, and finally, Commencement.

The Prom was a picturesque "Polynesian Paradise" terminating everyone's patience and hard work. On June 4, 1971, we met for Commencement, the last time the Senior Class was ever assembled as one. This for everyone was a memorable and meaningful occasion. Many tears were shed, some of joy in accomplishment, and some of sorrow, in having to leave behind the great times, the fun activities, and most of all the close friendships.

The halls of MHS will certainly be missed and will, of course, never be the same again, as the Class of 1971, leaves them and all the memories behind.

1) Class of 1971 President, John Buker, conducts a fierce Executive Committee Meeting. 2) This year's Senior Class Secretary, Judy Keeler, ponders over her minutes. 3) Vice President Ramsay Slugg checks over the past class projects. 4) Senior Class Treasurer, Fred Stern, tries in vain to balance the budget. 5) Senior officers and advisors find time to "ham it up."

... And Now Only The Memories Of Senior High Linger On

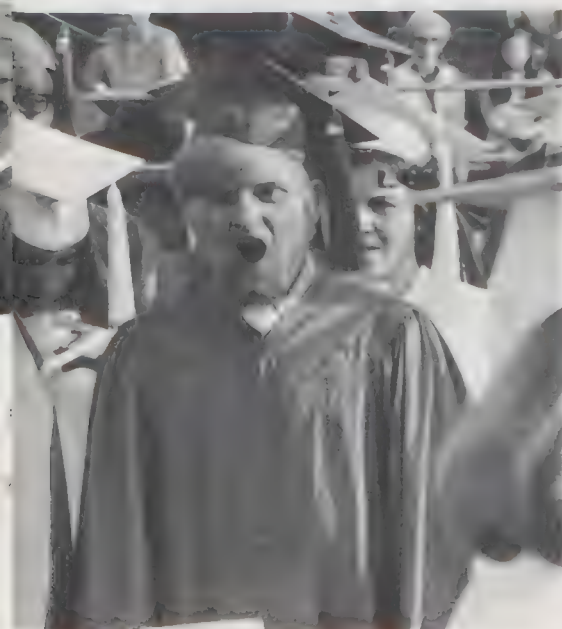

Judy Keeler beams as she receives her diploma.

The Prom and Commencement are the final pieces that fall into place as June rolls around and our three year "Life at Senior High" puzzle is completed. Seniors danced the night away at the Senior Prom. Girls, prettier than before, Boys, a little more handsome, exquisite food, dreamy music, and lots and lots of flowers turned the evening into a "Polynesian Paradise".

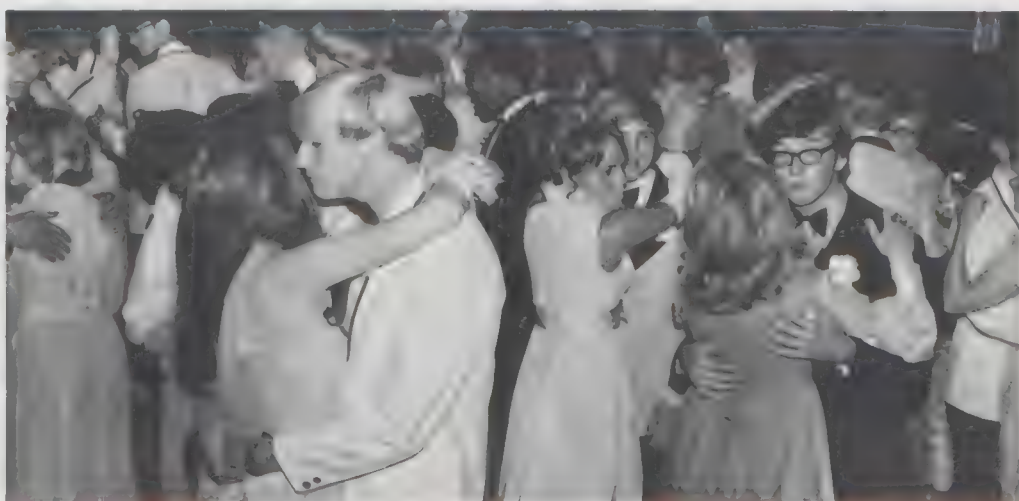

We met for the final time as a complete class on June 4, 1971, for Commencement. We've graduated, we're done, and we all look ahead to what the future will have in store for us.

Three years of experiences placed their own individual pieces into our puzzle. But the puzzle is done the picture complete, and now only the memories of "Life at Mansfield Senior High" linger on.

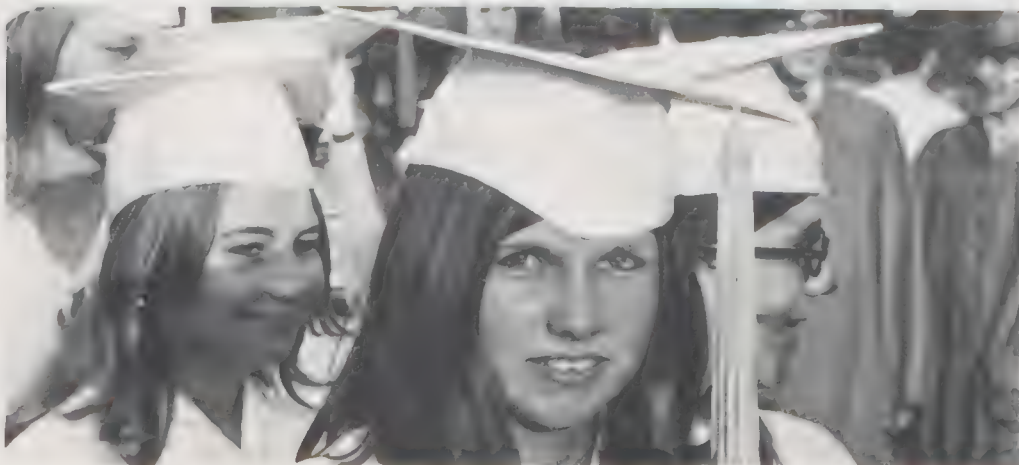

Seniors dance to the dreamy music of a "Polynesian Paradise."

Along with Vice-Presidential duties, John Hall participates in M.H.S. Band.

The Halls of M.H.S. were filled with many new faces in September which formed the class of 1973. Class elections were held in January. Reggie Davis was elected President, along with John Hall, Vice-President, Shirlee Neuman, Treasurer, and Regina Arter, Secretary. Mr. Pugh and Mr. Goode were asked to advise the class.

At different times throughout the year, sophomores participated in activities, including a sophomore class party and choosing class rings.

A Word Of Thanks . . .

Throughout the past school year many people have made this, the 1971 Manhigan, possible. We, the editors of this year's book, would like to acknowledge those people who have made this book a reality.

First of all, our thanks go to the staff members of the Manhigan. Without these people the publication could not have been possible. To our advisor, Mr. Dave Gross, and the American Yearbook representative, Mr. Earl Parks, we express our appreciation.

Our thanks also go to the photographers, George Paul and Bill Klingensmith, for the many fine pictures. Smucker's Studio and the Mansfield News-Journal provided other pictures for which we are grateful.

We would like to extend our appreciation to the business staff, headed by Mr. Tom Cleaver, for the sale of books and for increasing the volume of advertising in this year's book.

In closing, we wish that next year's staff might have the best of luck in the publication of the 1972 Manhigan.
